ACM Kolkata Chapter appeals to faculty members /industry people in East and North-East India who are acting as supervisor to nominate their project students for ACM Kolkata B.Tech. Award in Computing for 2024. Students who are co-authors of same thesis need to form teams and nomination should be per thesis/project basis, not per student. Each team need nomination from project supervisor and HoD / Institute Head.

Final / Pre-final year students of 4-year B.Tech / B.E. programs in CS / IT or allied streams (2020- 24 for 4th year/ 2021-2025 for 3rd year students) are eligible to apply.

Important Dates:

- Deadline for Submission of nominations: April 15, 2024
- Deadline for Submission of final Thesis / Project report: May 1, 2024
- Project presentation and Announcement of Results: May 4-5, 2024

How to Apply?

1. The team should fill the nomination form online: <https://forms.gle/7XPacQfstrqyZHBZ9>

The form captures the team details and online application fee payment information

Upload the scanned copy of nomination form [Doc 2] (duly signed by supervisor and forwarded by the HoD / Director / Principal of Institute, where students are enrolled)

Upload filled project description document using the template provided [Doc 3]

2. The shortlisted teams names will be announced mid-April. Only those teams need to upload final project report/dissertation on the earlier filled editable online form by May 1, 2024.

Procedure for adjudication:

The project entries will be evaluated by a selection committee formed by the ACM Kolkata Chapter. Short-listed teams will be asked to make a presentation in front of a panel of juries on May 5-6, 2024, at University of Calcutta, Salt Lake Campus. Based on the presentation (with optional demo) and documents uploaded, winners will be selected and will receive cash / vouchers and certificates. Short listed teams will receive ACM certificates for participation.

Awards: (cash / voucher awards as per sponsorship)

ACM Kolkata B.Tech Project Winner Award: Rs. 25,000/-

ACM Kolkata B.Tech Project Runners Up Award: Rs. 15,000/-

ACM Kolkata B.Tech Project 2nd Runners Up Award: Rs. 10,000/-
